

NATIONAL MEDIATOR ACCREDITATION SYSTEM

Peter has been accredited by the Bar Association of Queensland as a nationally accredited mediator in accordance with the Australian National Mediator Accreditation System.

The system is administered by the Mediator Standards Board and full details of the Board and the System can be accessed at www.msb.org.au.

Peter is required to conduct mediations in accordance with practice standards applying to nationally accredited mediators. Those approval standards for accreditation of mediators and the practice standards for nationally accredited mediators can be accessed at the Board website above.

The practice standards require certain disclosure obligations. Amongst those obligations is the requirement to advise any participant in a mediation conducted by Peter, as mediator, that if there is any complaint in relation to Peter's conduct as mediator, such complaint should be forwarded to the Mediator Standards Board whose contact details can be assessed as above.
